Dear Sir or Madam:

Re: Local 520 PAC

We are writing on behalf of our client, the above-named taxpayer. Enclosed is Form 8871, Political Organization Notice of Section 527 Status, being filed in accordance with the Bill signed in to law on July 1, 2000. We recognize that the due date for this filing was July 31, 2000. However, due to circumstances, which are outlined below, we are filing late and request any potential penalty which might be applied be abated.

As you are aware, the law went into effect July 1,2000. Unfortunately, the Bill apparently did not receive a great amount of publicity and neither our client nor members of our Firm were aware of the required July 31 filing, until July 31, 2000. My client contacted me on July 31 requesting assistance with the filing and unfortunately, I had taken ill with a serious ear infection on July 30 and was confined to bed and did not go to work or take phone calls until Thursday, August 3, 2000. At that time, we immediately began preparation of the Form and are now submitting that filing.

We respectfully request you recognize this late filing as not due to a disregard of the law. As soon as we became aware of the new law we took steps to comply. Consequently, we request that any potential penalties be abated.

Very truly yours,

Bruce J. Brown Principal
